

Objective: Driving Financial Inclusion.

Question: Using technology, how do we address the issues of outreach and delivery in rural and remote areas for the unbanked and underbanked in a viable manner.

Brief

How can startups leverage technology to provide services that are functional for illiterate customers to provide them with secure transaction experiences that build and enhance their confidence in the banking system?